

Electronic Contribution

Dear Faithful Supporter,

How many times has your annual, monthly, quarterly or semi-annual contribution been forgotten due to your busy schedule? A service is available that will eliminate one check-writing procedure.

The Electronic Contribution program enables you to authorize your bank to withdraw a specific amount from your checking or savings account and automatically deposit that amount into the CGGC's account. You determine your contribution amount and withdrawal frequency.

This program is totally optional. If you choose to participate, you may change the amount of your offering to any item or withdraw from the system completely given the proper notice to the CGGC. You may bank at almost any financial institution in the United States and still participate in this program. Your bank statements will show the amount withdrawn from your account.

The benefits to your CGGC include an even cash flow, reduced time spent by our supporters in preparing deposits and reduced bank service charges since electronic transactions are less costly. Fifth Third Bank will administer our direct debit program.

If you are out of town or on vacation, your offering will reach the CGGC in a timely manner. We invite you to give thoughtful and prayerful consideration to this service.
